Our Benefits

Our mission is to render legal support in only those spheres and branches of law where our lawyers practice at world-class levels of performance. This approach has led quite naturally to the establishment of separate practice areas, providing lawyers with the opportunity to focus on those areas in which they can develop a superb professional skill set, one that matches their education and experience.

While assisting clients, we rely upon the experience and knowledge gained by lawyers from our offices in four jurisdictions. Thus, when a client deals with one lawyer of our Firm, the whole our team is working for him.

Moreover, Konnov & Sozanovsky is a member of the international legal network, First Law International, which is comprised of law firms in large global centers. This allows us to render superior legal assistance to clients abroad in more than 30 countries.

Tatiana Gluhovskaya

Managing Partner

“Having earned a worthy and trusted reputation among Ukrainian and foreign clients and law firms, Konnov & Sozanovsky stepped over national borders and opened offices in three more countries – the Russian Federation, Great Britain and Cyprus.

The Moscow office is our largest foreign office with the longest history. It began in the year 2000, and continues to operate successfully today.

Our Moscow lawyers have acquired their own track record of rendering first class services in accordance with the same high international standards as those valued by our associates from the Kiev office.”

Natalia Biryukova

Head of Moscow Office

“Nowadays the Russian legal services market is exhibiting a dramatic increase marked by rapid development. It is due primarily to a great number of Russian commercial and industrial companies which are in need of qualified legal services.

Accordingly, the Moscow office of Konnov & Sozanovsky, being on the one hand an independent Russian law firm and on the other hand acting as an office for a western law firm, has found its niche among the variety of Moscow law firms.

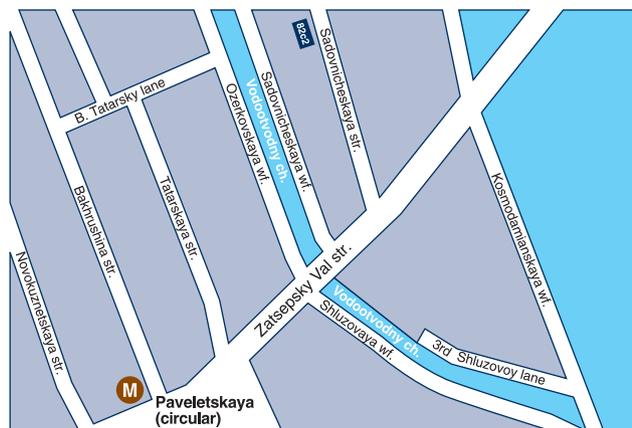

One of the main characteristics of our Moscow office is sustained development and growth, which goes in line with a permanent increase in the variety of services available to the clients.”
